As requested in the grant application submitted for the 2020-2021 TAP grant cycle.

The Foundation office must approve any change in the use of these funds.

The Foundation staff also should be informed if there are any other program changes.

Reporting requirements: To complete the final report; please go to our website at www.richlandcountyfoundation.org. You will find the final report form by clicking Grants and Scholarships, and then choose Grants in the dropdown menu.

In addition, we ask, if possible, for some media coverage of your program to be published identifying the support of the Foundation, and pictures of the program. If you have any digital/electronic media that the Foundation could use in newsletters, annual reports or other publications, please forward them via e-mail to smarth@rcfoundation.org.

GRANT CONDITIONS

Following grant conditions must be adhered to in the use of any grant made by the Richland County Foundation.

The funds provided pursuant to this grant may be spent only in accordance with the provisions of this signed contract. The program is subject to modification only with the Foundation's prior written approval.

The grantee shall return to the Foundation any unexpended funds:

1. At the end of the grant period, or
2. If the Foundation determines that the grantee has not performed in accordance with this agreement and approved program/budget, or
3. If the grantee loses its 501(c)(3) tax exemption

No funds provided by the Foundation may be used for any political campaign or to support attempts to influence legislation of any governmental body.

In accepting this grant, the grantee agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Richland County Foundation from any liability, loss, cost, injury, damage or other expense that may be incurred by the Richland County Foundation or claimed by any third person against it as a result of the Foundation's funding of the project or any action or non-action taken in connection with the project.

The grantee organization is responsible for the expenditure of funds and for maintaining adequate supporting records consistent with generally accepted accounting practices.

Unless otherwise stipulated in writing, this charitable grant is made with the understanding that the Foundation has no obligation to provide other or additional support to the grantee.

The grantee will furnish the Foundation with a written report, including a fair and complete financial statement and a brief narrative that describes program progress, upon the completion of the program for which the grant has been made. The Foundation may also request interim reports, and, in any case, will be supplied with a report at least once during the term of the grant.

Such reports shall supply sufficient information as necessary for the Foundation to determine that the grant is being used for the purposes intended and for the Foundation to fulfill its own public reporting responsibilities.

The Richland County Foundation is pleased to have made a charitable grant to your organization and looks forward to receiving your Grant Report for this project by June 1, 2021. To complete the final report; please go to our website at www.richlandcountyfoundation.org. You will find the final report form by clicking Grants and Scholarships, and then choose Grants in the dropdown menu.
