

CONFIDENTLY LEADING THROUGH
COLLABORATION, CUSTOMIZATION AND CREATIVITY

Board Report February 2022

Achievement & Leadership

Attendance Tracking Software

As part of the extended learning grant received from ODE, MOESC will be providing an attendance tracking software to all client districts. I will be meeting with Chris Miller (software creator) to work on terms of purchase for the attendance tracking software.

Student Leadership Conference

MOESC will be hosting a student leadership conference on May 17, 2022. We will be inviting approximately 24 students from each client/partner district to attend. The keynote speaker will be Doug Ute, Executive Director of OHSAA.

Esports

The consultant, Jake Molyet, will be sending his signed contract soon this month. Once we have a contract, we will begin the process of preparing the Esports arena. I will be asking Candy Bores for her assistance in purchasing the needed technology and supplies. The Esports arena should be up and running this summer.

District Services

Below is a summary of my work in client and partnering districts.

Crestview

I will be hosting Ohio Teachers Evaluation System training for Crestview's teacher leaders. Training days will be held on February 7 and 9, 2022

Galion

My next leadership session will be held on March 24, 2022.

Lucas

I have continued provide supports to Lucas's elementary Building Leadership Team and its elementary principal. The team is working on mission/vision work, leadership accountability, and system monitoring.

Mount Gilead

Facilitated subcommittee meetings on March 3, 2022. I may be asked to continue work with subcommittees.

MOESC Leadership Development

Student Services

We will conduct our third learning at lunch leadership session on March 25, 2022.

Leadership Support

MID-OHIO EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CENTER

Leadership Support Team

The Leadership Support Team provides customizable learning, mentorship, and coaching to district, building, and teacher-level leadership teams. Our implementation experts will provide direct personalized supports to individuals and/or selected groups of educational leaders.

Dr. Mark Burke has held numerous and pivotal leadership positions in public education and academia. His strength and success was recognized by several professional entities that have allowed him the opportunity to build the capacity of other leaders and present at state sponsored conferences and organizations. In addition, he is an adjunct professor in the Graduate College at The Bowling Green State University. Dr. Burke enjoys sharing strategies in implementing effective leadership practices, systems of culturally relevant communication (clear vision, mission, and messaging), and processes and protocols to yield school improvement with prescriptive professional learning and ongoing coaching.
