

Heather Dillon Travel request info

Amber N. Clay-Mowry Clay-Mowry.amber@moesc.net

Mark E. Burke Jr. burke.mark@moesc.net

Who: Heather Dillon

What: Academic Growth Data Credential, Regional Data lead pathway

Why: This training is in response to expanding the capacity of Mid-Ohio to serve as Regional Data Leads in order to serve districts in Ohio by providing regional supports for using data to analyze professional practice. The Academic Growth Data Credential is one of several credentials required for this designation and is only offered through this training held in North Carolina.

When: EVAAS University is scheduled to be completed this spring on the SAS campus in Cary, North Carolina from March 19-22, 2024.

Thank you,

Amber