Read Ohio Network:

It's an exciting time to be supporting literacy efforts in Ohio. With the governor's commitment to the science of reading, shifts in policies related to literacy and increased funding for educators and districts in support of literacy learning and implementation in the biennium budget, there is much to do this coming year! The Department's focus for this year is helping support literacy implementation across Ohio, so that the many literacy policies we have in place are sustained; not just boxes to check off for compliance.

The Read Ohio Network will play a pivotal role in supporting the implementation of high-quality literacy instruction and systems that bridge the components of these policies as levers for overall literacy improvement. Our role is to support and empower schools and districts to effectively implement best practices in literacy to meet the needs of all learners.

We will meet as a network monthly to learn together, problem-solve and plan for supports needed statewide. These meetings typically occur on the first Tuesday of the month and are held in-person or virtually, depending on the month.

Read Ohio Newsletter: The state's data analyst, Sherine Tambaraja, is utilizing a report prepared by Candy Bores for the Governor's meeting regarding the Early and Adolescent Newsletter engagement data. Candy helps me provide the project stakeholders with monthly resources for all teachers and leaders in the district that partner with our project. This year we will serve over 120 schools.
