

CONFIDENTLY LEADING THROUGH COLLABORATION, CUSTOMIZATION AND CREATIVITY

Board Report May 2025

Leadership & Learning

Recent feedback from districts provides evidence of a stronger alignment across departments by reinforcing shared instructional priorities. This collaboration has created common language and practices across literacy, gifted, and content area teams, ensuring that all students receive instruction that is both rigorous and responsive.

Gifted:

Consultants: Sherri Richter, Leanna Ferreira, Jenny Pennell, Rebecca Kidney, Lisa Gonzalez, Colleen Haynes, Leah Barger, Danya Davis, Connie Massaro

- The award winners from this year's Artapolooza were invited to display at the Mansfield Richland County Public Library. The gallery exhibition will be displayed from May 1 to May 23.
- Academic Challenge hosts its final tournaments of the season on May 13th and 14th for grades 6-8.

Literacy & Math:

Consultants: Sherri Richter, Heather Dillon, Lisa Walter, Connie Massaro, Danya Davis, Leanna Ferreira, Rebecca Kidney

- Amber Clay-Mowry participated in a stakeholder engagement meeting at Ashland University to provide feedback on educator preparation as well as share about services and support that MOESC offers to our schools and districts.
- Members of the team presented at the AI summit hosted by MOESC on May 6th. The presentation focused on exploring the role and influence of AI to support strong practices within adolescent literacy.
- The team continues to provide customized support to districts through an array of targeted initiatives. As part of district requests, the team has supported welcoming new Kindergartners for screening, planning interventions for literacy and math, and strengthening teacher use of assessment tools across content areas. Additionally, consultants have supported family and community engagement events in the evenings at several districts.