Passionately serving the whole child through innovation, collaboration, and dedication.

Board Report for September 24, 2025

Turlo-GOAL #1: Trust, Communication, and Quality Service

- Have begun tracking phone calls to ensure a minimum of 1 check-in with district special education directors to proactively address any situation that could become a problem and support their programs.
- District fall visits have been scheduled.

Turlo-GOAL #2: Recruitment and Retention

- Planned out what activities taking place in Fall for Cohort #1 of the SLP HS mentorship.
- Began communication with a variety of Institutes of Higher Education to continue recruitment of new development candidates as well as future employees, specifically for SLP and School Psychology.
- Scheduled check-ins with current staff for fall communication of their preference (in person, phone call, virtual meeting)
- Leads taking lead on work-life balance events.

Non-goal related work.

- Collaboration with districts and Ohio Speech and Hearing Professionals Board to begin onboarding SLP Aides
- Completed Parent Mentor Kickoff and onboarding.
- Finalized outline of the HS Mentorship with the Kevin Fourman and the School Psychology and Speech and Language Consultants for Cohort 1 and beginning Cohort 2 to include School Psychology mentorship.
- Met with various Mid-Ohio Educational Service Center staff members as part of the Director of Student Services transition plan.
