Gifted, Literacy, and Math

- Representative consultants will attend the Ohio Association for Gifted Children conference sessions aligned with district needs and defined deliverables.
- The Adolescent Literacy Network opened its 4th year with over 128 educators and administrators collaborating to align district and building goals for student success. A new cohort of 62 Math, Science, Social Studies, and ELA teachers joined for a session on high-yield instructional practices

- The K–3 Literacy Network launched with over 30 participants in the first learning session. The network is designed to bring educators and leaders together across our region to focus on transfer, application, and implementation science.
- Mid-Ohio ESC is still actively participating in the Regional Literacy Team hosted by the Department of Education & Workforce, which brings together literacy stakeholders across Ohio.

Grants & Other Supports:

- On October 10th, the Leadership & Learning Department is joining with Student Services to host a workshop for educators in collaboration with Amy Secrist and a visiting artist.
- MOESC collaborated to present a network meeting for schools across Region 7 as part of the Adolescent Literacy Specialist role in collaboration with DEW.
