Non-Public/Charter School Preferred Membership Benefits

Proposal:

To establish a Mid-Ohio Educational Service Center membership level for non-public and charter schools.

Proposal Purpose:

To provide a structure for non-public and charter schools that gives access to benefits of the ESC including member rates for networks and professional learning. The fee structure would include a list of services non-public schools can access for free or at a reduced rate.

Mid-Ohio ESC proposes the following benefits to non-public schools as members:

Benefits Package:

- Annual Substitute Teacher List:
  - Placed on Mid-Ohio ESC substitute application and receive substitute list organized by Mid-Ohio ESC through BCI/FBI check and licensure
- Annual Tutor Lists:
  - Receive names of licensed tutors prepared by Mid-Ohio ESC through BCI/FBI check and licensure
- Conference Center Use:
  - One educational staff event in one fiscal year
- Collaborative Grant Writing and Developmental Services:
  - Member districts are always invited to participate in grant opportunities when Mid-Ohio ESC is a collaborative partner and it is appropriate to include other districts. Districts may purchase additional grant writing services.
- Email Lists:
  - Added to email lists for Ohio Department of Education and other educational updates
- Job Posting:
  - Free posting of jobs on website
- Network Meetings:
  - Principals, Curriculum, Instruction, Assessment (CIA), District Test Coordinator, School Counselor, Tech Coach, OT/PT/SLP, Special Education Coordinator, School Psychologist
